According to Councilman Byron Lee, District 3, “In times like these we must hold fast to hope! We have all seen the damages of Covid-19 on our community and we must each do our part to flatten the curve. In addition to the testing sites and mask giveaways we’ve done this year, I am happy to partner with InclusivCare to begin administering the vaccine. We highly encourage all that are eligible to take advantage of this opportunity.”

CEO of InclusivCare Dr. Shondra Williams said, “We remain laser focused on the needs of the community and vulnerable populations in Jefferson Parish. We are happy to partner with Councilman Lee to expand our collective efforts to combat the pandemic that will leave a permanent mark. We fully endorse COVID 19 vaccination as one of the weapons that can end and slow down the spread of COVID 19.”

Vaccines will be free and provided by appointment only. A brief screening process will be required to ensure eligibility based on the guidelines. Individuals should bring a picture ID to verify age or work ID to verify employment. Jefferson Parish is committed to the safety of all citizens and will accommodate as many as possible with the vaccines that are available.

Free rapid COVID testing will also be available for individuals who have pre-registered, as required. Vaccines will not be administered to anyone who is experiencing symptoms of COVID 19 or who test positive for COVID 19 on the day of the event.
